“ When I heard today from my son Chris about Leo, I first thought back to the time I met him at one of the surgical supply dealers we mutually had - we spent about 1 1/2 hrs talking about J J & B-D - I know I was late for dinner at home that night and caught "hell" from my wife for being late ... it seemed whenever we ran into each other after that, we'd spend a good amount of time together solving all those company situations that 'irked' us - Mary Ann and I are very sorry for your loss - Leo will be in our prayers

“ Dear Peg,

Although we haven't been in touch, I have NEVER forgotten your lovely family. I am surrounded by beautiful memories of Leo and you, and I enjoy calling them to mind often. I am so broken-hearted that I didn't remind Leo how much I like, admire and miss him (and you) before now. I am so sorry for your loss. I wish you all comfort and peace in the company of your loved ones.

Love, Maria (and Fadi, Mia & Aurie)

“ Peg and family, We just learned this morning at Mass of Leo's death. Our deepest sympathies. Jack and I have so many happy memories of the boys "playing" together and always remember your many kindnesses to Jay. We also fondly remember your wonderful parties, particularly on Super Bowl Sunday. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. I am sure Leo's spirit, his great sense of humor, and the wonderful man he was will be missed by many. Our deepest sympathies. Judy & Jack Martin

“ I met the Cosgroves when I was a freshman at CCHS and met Mary. We remained close friends until her death. She came to Ft Wayne a few times. I went to her home often and so became friends of the whole family. I was also close to Pat especially after Mary left for the convent. Please accept my sincere condolences.
