“ Lee and I had been friends for about 40-45 years. We worked together first with New England life, then with Lafayette life. He was one of the most genuine individuals I have ever known. He and I always had ways of making the most of any situation, and enjoying every moment of life.

“ For a truly great man and Uncle, who knew best to take care of his family, though not there, your presence was always felt, welcomed and appreciated, a generation now all gone, you took with you all the best it could have ever been, God Bless You and your family,
Uncle Lee,
