“ He was of the finest men I have ever known, an electrical power technician, a mentor and a friend. He cemented a struggling Power Distribution Shop in DCWASA after he retired from Pepco. He help me bring DCWASA & MC Dean High Voltage & Power testing to where they are today. The Kid or the Lion will always be grateful for the patience you show me as we built a testing shop in DCWASA. Thank you, Daniel M. Hickman
