

Liela Antonette Lombardo

June 13, 1929 - July 17, 2018

Liela Lombardo passed away on Tuesday, July 17, 2018 at the age of 89. Born in Brooklyn, New York, Liela lived a life of travel, moving to Long Island, New York, and living there for 37 years before heading overseas to Europe to live with her daughter Lila and her three granddaughters Lila, Maria, and Angela. She resided with them for 22 years until her passing. Ending her world tour in Manassas, Virginia, Liela was happy to live her final years in the United States. As the child of Italian and German immigrants, Liela was proud to be an American and passed her patriotism to her children and grandchildren. A loving mother and grandmother, Liela never failed to remind her loved ones to get gas in their cars, to lock their doors, and to avoid talking with strangers. Quick-witted and full of spirit, she always spoke her mind. Liela had a deep love of literature and poetry, which she shared with her friends and family. Her favorite poems were always at the tip of her tongue. Liela was always ready for an adventure and never lost her appetite for life. Liela is survived by her daughters Lila Jividen and Leslie Wiesenfeld, her son-in-law Andy Wiesenfeld, her grandchildren Lila, Maria, Angela, Nicole and Joshua, and her grandchildren-in-law Scott, Justin, and Bill (to be). Liela is deeply loved and missed by family and friends and will remain in their hearts and lives forever.
