“ Grammie - Its been 7 years and there is still such a big void in the world without you in it. I try to bring your peace, kindness, good heart, and strength into my life and that of my kids. They would have loved to know you and I try to tell them of our wonderful talks, summers together with all the cousins, and the over abundance of love that you shared for your family. You created a safe and loving home for all us and the memories of that will always be cherished. I miss you ❤️
