“ Linda was the most compassionate person I have ever met. She was always so energetic, committed to work, and she was committed to her family. She had a deep love for all the 4 legged furry family members, and that love was so great that everyone who knew her, all the clients who entrusted their pets to us could just feel the emotional connection she felt towards them. She frequently was moved to tears when anyone, human or animal was sick, injured, or had died. Her feelings were so genuine that she gained admirers from all who were helped by her. We have many clients who would call in and refused to talk to anyone but her because they knew....she truly, deeply cared about them. We all grieve for Linda because we have lost a very unique and special person. She never put herself first. she was committed to helping others, and we will always remember the love and compassion and self sacrifice that sums up the life of Linda Mauck.
