

Linda Maurer North

July 31, 1952 - April 29, 2014

LINDA MAURER NORTH, 61, of Manassas, Virginia passed away Tuesday, April 29, 2014 at Prince William Hospital in Manassas.

She was born July 31, 1952 in Long Beach, California the daughter of the late Richard C. and Kathryn (McCammon) Maurer.

Linda was a loving mother to her daughter Katie who describes her as “my best friend, my rock, my everything” and a caring daughter and primary caretaker for her father prior to his passing in 2013. She was a warm, generous, friend who brought laughter and joy to everyone she met.

Linda worked in many of the local restaurants in Manassas. She remembered everyone's names and preferences and in turn, they all remembered her and followed her from restaurant to restaurant over the years. She had a large, diverse circle of friends and brought people from all walks of life together. Everyone that she crossed paths with became her friend whether she had known them for ten minutes or ten years. She touched many people's heart with her great sense of humor and genuine caring. She could light up the darkest of times and was the best cheerleader to have on your team.

Linda loved the beach and in her spare time she always had a book in hand. She was an animal lover and in turn the animals could sense the kind, nurturing spirit that she was. She could often be found hand feeding the local deer and birds. She cherished her friends and her family and the love that she had for them is beyond words. She will truly be missed and never forgotten.

Her daughter Katie said, "she was my rock star, my angel, and I think everyone could agree, an absolute pleasure to everyone who was a part of her life. My mom was a legendary woman, whose legacy will forever live. There were so many wonderful qualities about my mom that I could only hope to be like her one day."

Survivors include her daughter, Kathryn M. North of Manassas, Virginia; one brother, Michael J. Maurer, his wife Teri and son Justin.

A memorial service will be held 2:00PM Saturday, May 17, 2014 at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia.

“ Linda,

Laurie and I will miss you dearly. You have known our daughters since they were born (now 14 and 12 years old). No matter where you were working, we always went there and asked for you. Rest our friend.

“ Linda & I met when our daughters were in Kindergarten. We were often told that our daughters could be sisters with their beautiful brown hair and gorgeous big brown eyes! Sometimes, store clerks would mix us up & call me Ms. North & then I would say, "I know who you mean, she's my friend!" They would tell me we also looked alike...even though Linda was much thinner! I will miss our "look-alike" friendship!

“ Katie, your mom would just love to tell us how you were doing as you were growing up. Every time we saw her we would talk about when you and Shelby were toddlers. She was the familiar face of old town that made it feel like home. We will miss her presence.

“ Linda...God has called you home to be with your loving Mom and Dad. You helped anyone who was in need, and had a smile for everyone no matter what. We miss you so and always will. You were and are the greatest.

Love,
Nina, Brian, and Nicole

“ I am going to miss you dearly Linda. You were truly one of a kind, and were taken from us way too soon. Rest easy old friend, we will all join you in the afterlife one day- and when I get there, I will fix your gutters or plant your trees (that will never grow- lol) or whatever else you need done around the house- like always:) Try not to worry about Katie, thanks to the legacy you left behind, she will practically have an entire city looking after her:)

Love ya Linda- Rob
