“ Thinking of you, Mama. I had a dream about you last night. I went to Grandma's old house and when I walked in her bedroom, you were laying in a really high hospital bed with the biggest smile on your face. I sure do love and miss you! I hope you're dancing in the sky with Grandma and Granddaddy.❤️

“ Hi Mama
20 years ago today, we took Tiffany, Tyler, and Toddy to Chuck E. Cheese. I remember the breaking news about the attack came on while you were on your way to get us. The kids had so much fun that day. It's hard to believe it's been 20 years. I love you, Mama ❤️

“Minnie always followed my FB posts; she ALWAYS told me how beautiful my kids are. She'd call Caleb "Little David". I'm so sorry for the loss of this great woman. I have missed seeing her since she moved to Tennessee. I hope you all find peace and comfort in her no longer suffering. Love you all. 🙏❤️

“ I will always fondly remember your mother, (my cousin) Minnie; we had some really fun times back in the early days when I was just old enough to baby-sit a couple of you. She loved her country music and I remember riding up and down the roads (#234) mainly and just singing songs to the top of our lungs. Our favorite mode of transportation at the time was "Old Faithful" which was an old car my Dad had that he would lend to Ladybug and Minnie and they'd come pick me up. I remember her making me go to an Ernest Tubbs and Loretta Lynn concert at I think it was called Watermelon Park. She may be gone but not forgotten as those childhood memories linger on as will she in our hearts. May find comfort in the Lord in your time of sorrow in R.I.P.
