“ Dear Mrs. Brill, Chip, Carson, and family,
I'm so sorry for your loss. A few years ago I had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Brill again, many years after his days as a Haydon parent. I enjoyed hearing him talk about how proud he was of each of you.
May you each find comfort in the days ahead recalling fond memories. Keeping you in my thoughts and prayers, Daisy Reynolds “ Lou had the patience of a saint. My fondest memory is of him trying to teach my daughter how to play chess at Haydon Elementary. She was 5 years at the time and liked to make up her own rules. She loved chess club, mostly so she could hang out with Lou.
