

Louis Thomas Nappi Sr.

December 21, 1935 - March 24, 2026

Lieutenant Colonel Louis Thomas Nappi, Sr., United States Marine Corps (Retired), passed away peacefully on March 24 2026, at the age of 90.

Born on December 21, 1935, Lou lived a life defined by honor, service, and devotion to his family. He proudly served his country as an officer in the United States Marine Corps, rising to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel over a distinguished career spanning more than two decades. His leadership, integrity, and commitment to duty left a lasting impact on those who served alongside him.

Lou was the beloved husband of Geraldine Louise Nappi, with whom he shared nearly 70 years of marriage. He was a devoted and proud father to Louis Nappi Jr. (Cathy) and Roger Nappi (Laurie), and a loving grandfather to Taylor, Alexa, and Devin.

Lou had a lifelong love of golf and was a proud member of Evergreen Country Club, where he enjoyed many years of friendship and time on the course.

A memorial service will be held at Quantico National Cemetery on Tuesday, April 14, 2026 at 1:00pm.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Disabled American Veterans Charitable Service

Trust may be made in Lou's memory.

Semper Fidelis.
