

Loy J. Zambrowicz

November 11, 1934 - May 12, 2023

Loy Zambrowicz, age 88, passed away after fighting a long battle with illness on May 12, 2023, at his home in Annandale, VA. His loving wife of 55 years, Katheleijne Zambrowicz, was by his side as he passed away.

He was born on November 11, 1934. Loy was the second oldest of 12 kids who grew up on a farm in De Pere, Wisconsin. He joined the military and served two tours of duty in Vietnam.

Loy will be remembered for his kind and gentle nature, generosity, love of dogs, and for never finding a beer he didn't like.

He was an avid sportsman, especially a fan of the Green Bay Packers, and will be missed for heading up the seasonal family sports pools (which he managed to win with suspicious regularity). He was immensely proud of his "handyman" talents, never missing the opportunity to regale folks with tales of how he "fixed" drywall with nothing more than a tube of toothpaste and a can-do attitude.

Loy loved devouring a good book, hated lawn work, and somehow found culinary pleasure from a cold can of soup and an old spoon. Most importantly, he found pleasure in spending time with family and friends.

He is survived by his wife, Katheleijne Zambrowicz; son, Kevin Zambrowicz; and daughter-in-law, Caroline Zambrowicz.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the Hope for Paws charity in his name.

“ Kevin:

I am truly sorry on the passing of your Dad. If the measure of a father is his children, your Dad was a giant. Peace to you and your family.

My sincerest condolences to Katheleijne, Kevin and Caroline at this very difficult time. I'm sure your husband, father and father-in-law will be sorely missed.

Love to each one of you.
