

Luise Seitz Breiter

September 19, 1933 - June 16, 2017

Luise Seitz Breiter went home to be with the Lord on June 16, 2017. She passed peacefully, with family at her bedside and a smile on her face.

Luise was born on September 19, 1933 in Furth, Germany. She met Manfred Breiter from Bremen, Germany in an English class in New York. Together they raised a family in Manassas, Virginia.

Luise is survived by her loving husband Manfred Breiter; two daughters: Anita Waggy and husband Bart and Caroline Morgan and husband Ken; two granddaughters: Amanda Waggy and Lee Holbrook; and Johanne Waggy and Shawn Andrews, as well as many friends far and near.

A private family ceremony will be held to bring Luise home and complete the family circle. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the American Heart Association.

There will be a Celebration of Life in the near future, date to be determined.

“ I will never forget the love Granny gave Henry and I and the family. She always made me laugh and Henry loved being with her. The 2 of them together interacting was always fun to watch, a real hoot. I told you many times, your parents always made me feel welcome and loved. My heart hurts. Thank God you have so many sweet memories to keep you warm. Her love will always be alive in your mind and heart. I love all of you and my prayers and thoughts are with you.

“ There would not be enough space to share my memories. They begin in 1965 and continue forever. We went long periods of time without seeing one another, but we always knew we were in each other's hearts. Luise will live forever in my heart. My best friend may have departed this earth but she will always be with me. Love you, Sandy

“ Carrie, Anita and family,

I'm so very sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She was a lovely lady -- I don't think I ever saw her when she wasn't smiling. She will be greatly missed. I hope for all of you whatever it is you need to get through this very sad and difficult time. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
