“ While I visted Lynn just once a week, we develped a wonderful friendship. We would call each to make sure we were each doing OK I gald I was got to say oodbye to her Tuesday along with Prceless who she lovingly referred to as 'princess" I'd like to think she knew she was there. I will miss her very much. I hope she knew what a wonderful friend she was to me.

“ To Lynn's Family-I worked with Lynn for many years at Fireside Bookshop. I never knew any of you but heard lots of wonderful things. I loved Lynn's crystal blue eyes--her irreverant sense of humor-her unmavering support of me during some hard times there. I will always remember her with a soft spot in my heart--my deepest sympathy to you all--Jean Endle
