Millie I was shocked when Kelly told me about Mack. I wish I could have been there for you today. I thought about both of you often. So many memories of Mack cracking up when I was supposed to be feeding him, or our GH watching days and my endless threats to paint his toenails! I am sending you love, hugs and prayers. We can find peace in knowing Mack is sliding on those streets of gold now!

“ My condolences to Mack's family. It was evident that he was loved quite dearly by family and friends. I had a History class with Mack at SJHS. I remember him as being mature for his age and very kind. He was kind to his classmates and very respectful to our teachers. I'm terribly sorry to hear of his passing. Sincerely, Julie Lewandowski
