“ Cindi, You have experienced a tremendous loss. I am so sorry for the heavy heart that you and your family are going through. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers at this sad time. I will always treasure the late night Monopoly games at Dennis & Peggy's house, that Maz always won. He will be missed by many, and the impact he made with his big smile and gracious kindness will not be forgotten.

“ The passing of family and friend is a 'bittersweet' time. Bitter because those left behind can no longer see the loved ones smile or feel their touch...but sweet also to know that the loved one has gone 'home' and no longer feels the pain of this earth. Remember and cherish the memories. May the good Lord grant you gentle peace.
