“ Meme, you have no idea how much I think about you and poppy everyday. I hate that I do not know
If you knew that I really did love you so much, and appreciate you. I was too young to express that to you. But, I think about you and the amazing memories and childhood that you gave me. I miss you so much, and I hope that you knew how much I love you and appreciated you. I wish I could talk to you one last time.

“ Margie and her husband William have been the nicest neighbors anyone could ask for. I will miss our conversation sitting on her front porch talking about our families. She was so proud of all her children. Rest In Peace Mrs Gallihugh. You were loved by so many.
