“ My sweet grandma Kay. She was my second mother. I just am so glad God blessed me with two wonderful moms. I dont know what I would have done without her. Her kind spirit, her faith in God, her loving heart. I can only hope that I come close to being such a wonderful mom to my boys.

“ My neighbor of 32 years, Kaye. I can't express how much I will miss "watching her across the street". Seeing her waving at me, seeing her little blue Honda in the driveway. This is a part of my life that will be gone. But, as anyone that knew her will say - she will never be forgotten!! Her memory will live on in our hearts. I will miss her laugh. I will miss her smile. Timmy, Nancy, Libby...what an example you have had in your lives. I see a little bit of her in each of you. So yes, she will live on. She was so, so proud of her family. Loved each one unconditionally. That came from her knowledge and love of Jesus. I know Kaye is in Heaven, singing with the angels...and walking with Bob and Lloyd...laughing so loud. Like I told her Thursday, "I'll see you when I get there, and tell Lloyd hello for me". By for now Kaye, and we will meet again.
