

Margaret M. Jackson

November 4, 1942 - April 2, 2019

Margaret Magrogan Jackson, age 76 of Gainesville, Virginia passed peacefully Tuesday, April 2, 2019, surrounded by her family. She was born November 4, 1942 in Chestertown, Maryland, daughter of the late Grant and Mary (Graham) Magrogan.

Margaret was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 43 years, Paul Edward Jackson. Survivors include her loving sons Grant Norman and Matthew Edward Jackson, both of Fairfax, Virginia; two sisters, Sara Jean Canova (Charles) and Rose Beaudry (late husband Michael); three brothers, John Grant (late wife Donna), James Anthony and Theodore Joseph Magrogan (Janet); two aunts, Helena Perry and Betty Queen; and many nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews and cousins whom she loved very much.

Margaret previously worked as a Project Manager for DynCorp, but her biggest joy was her family, especially her devoted sons. She enjoyed attending family holiday functions, visiting loved relatives, traveling, creating beautiful jewelry and visiting with her lifelong friends. In retirement, she enjoyed many activities with her retirement community friends, including chess, reading club, bocce ball (the Chewbocces), and being part of the community. She was a friend to everyone she met and a source of strength for all who knew her.

A mass of Christian burial will be celebrated at 10:30 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church, 8213 Linton Hall Road, Gainesville, Virginia, on Friday, April 12th with reception to follow at The Heritage Hunt Marsh Mansion, 13451 Fieldstone Way, Gainesville, Virginia. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to St. Jude's Children's Hospital in her honor.

“ Grant and Matt, we will all miss your mom in our lives. She was a brave and strong survivor. A wise and generous advisor. She was the smartest person I ever knew and she had a great sense of humor. Most of all she loved her sons with all her heart. I'm so sorry for your loss. Love and peace to you, Aunt Rosie
