“ It hardly feels like a year has nearly passed since you left. I know i was not always an active member of the family, i still always thought and loved each of you. I miss seeing you when i go visit Madeline. You are still very much with us. I'll always think of that bologna sandwich you made for me when i visited you before you got bad off. Funny how just a small thought of bologna can make me think of a bittersweet moment. Goodbye Aunt Margaret. RIP.

“ MaMa,
You will always be The BEST!! I LOVE YOU SOOOO MUCH!!! Last night as I sat on the porch the fireflies were flitting around and I remembered all the times we caught them in your front yard. And I thought of all the times we sat on the swing eating potato chips and your homemade dip while watching tv, helping with the green beans, jelly rolls, candy cane cookies, pound cake, our shopping trips to Manassas, you sitting in your rocking chair, us kids riding Babydoll, or riding in the cart, motorcycle rides with PaPa, digging up potatoes at Great Grandmas, so many wonderful holiday meals, all the times spent riding my bicycle up and down the drive, so many wonderful memories...I miss you!!!!I hope you knew just how special you were to me!!!Tim says I look like you...that makes me smile...
