

Margaret Elizabeth Timmons

September 11, 1946 - November 27, 2023

In loving memory of Margaret Elizabeth (Buckley) Timmons. Born on September 11, 1946; peacefully departed on November 27, 2023, at 77 years young. Preceded in death by her father John Buckley, Sr. Mother Nellie Bennett Buckley. Brother John Buckley Jr, and husband Carl Timmons.

A devoted daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and fur mom. She brought warmth and joy to all who knew her. Her smile, laughter, and sense of humor will forever leave an impact on family and friends. The precious memories shared will forever be cherished. Survived by her sister Barbara Jean Daymude, daughters Katherine Timmons and Tracie Donaldson (Mark). Grandchildren Brittany Miller (Rusty), Carly and Aubrey Donaldson and great-grandchild Hunter Miller.

Born in Arlington, she spent her life within the Fairfax and Prince William County area. She began working at C&P telephone company then moved on to work for Prince William County Police Department in a civilian position in 1974 where she retired in 2004. She was a past running member of Lake Jackson Volunteer Fire Department and a charter president of the auxiliary.

Margaret believed in helping others that could not help themselves, humans, or animals alike. She always donated to St. Jude's hospital so in lieu of flowers we are asking donations to be made in her honor. You may mail
