

Maria Romero

February 29, 1948 - September 28, 2025

With profound sadness and deep love, we announce the passing of Maria Romero on September 28, 2025. Maria was a beacon of joy, faith, and warmth whose presence lit up every room she entered. Her charismatic personality transcended generations, drawing people in with laughter, love, and a spirit that never dimmed.

Maria leaves behind a devoted family who will carry her legacy forward: her daughter Patricia Romero; granddaughters Alexandra Romero, Michelle Marroquin, and Sara Marroquin; and her cherished great-grandson Josiah Lopez. Each of them is a reflection of her strength, kindness, and unwavering faith.

She was the life of the party—always smiling, always dancing, and always lifting others up. Maria didn't want to be remembered with tears, but with laughter and celebration. Her faith in God was the cornerstone of her life, and we take comfort in knowing that Heaven has gained a woman who loved Him with all her heart.

Maria's memory will live on in the stories we share, the joy we spread, and the love we give. She will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
