“Mike and I spent a wonderful vacation with Marilyn some time in the 1970s. What a wonderful time we had. We spent time with Margo and Frank on don,s boat, Marilyn white knuckle in her seat. We even had a trip to a six flags. You can imagine 3 adults laughing hysterically on the roller coaster, thank you Marilyn for all my wonderful memories. I will always treasure them. RIP Marilyn.

“ To my dear friend, Marilyn. Where do I start? From the time Joe introduced you to us (before you two were married) until my Tom died in 1988, there was such a special bond between our families. We worked together, we vacationed together, we shared birthdays, anniversaries, Christmases, New Years Eves and sooo many formal dances and dinners. We even tried camping once; what a hoot that was. I could write a book on the memories we made and the adventures we had before I moved back to Fredericksburg in 1989. You were kind, fun, talented, a hard worker, had a wonderful zest for life, and you loved your family and friends without question. You were always there when anyone needed a shoulder, a hug, or a good ole belly laugh. Over the years, we kept in touch, but as things usually happen, life changes, distance being a big factor, but I never ever forgot you. I have so many pictures that I will cherish forever. I know you are happy being reunited with Joe, the love of your life. RIP dear lady, you will be missed by so many.
