

Marion Louise Lumsden

November 6, 1942 - December 2, 2016

LUMSDEN, Marion L (Duncan), 74, of Manassas, Va, was called home to her Lord on December 2, 2016 after a long battle with pancreatic cancer. Born in Miami, FL and proud of her Norwegian heritage, she was the oldest child of J. Edward and Anna May Duncan and sister to Karen Smiley (husband, Jim). She was a loving mother to daughters Betsy Smith (husband, Eddie), Lisa Ware (husband, Gary), and Jennifer Booterbaugh (husband, Tom) who lovingly cared for her during her illness. Marion was enormously proud of her 6 wonderful grandchildren, David, Daniel (wife, Sarah), Bryan, Allison, JT (wife, Ashley), and Jessica, as well as her great grandchildren, Anton, Ava, and Astrid. She was dearly loved by her cousins, nieces, nephews, and many wonderful friends. Also included in her life was her former husband and friend, Ernie Lumsden. She retired from CSC in 2012, where she worked as an administrative assistant. Wherever she lived, she was always involved in a variety of church related activities, and had a love of travel abroad. Arrangements handled by PIERCE FUNERAL HOME (703-257-6028). Memorial Service is to be held at The Life Church 11234 Balls Ford Rd. Manassas, VA 20109 on Saturday, January 7, 2017 at 3:00 pm with the family receiving friends from 2-3 pm.. Interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, a donation to Pancreatic Cancer Research, Compassion International, or your local Fire department would be appreciated.

“ Although Marion and I lived 3,000 miles apart, we were peers in our jobs at CSC. I had the pleasure of meeting Marion. I flew back to the east to visit with my family in Charles Town, WVA and she drove up from her home, on her way to visit one of her daughters and going through Charles Town. We met at John's Restaurant. What a wonderful mother you have girls. She was always so pleasant and helpful when we would communicate by phone or email. I am truly blessed to have known Marion. My sympathies to her entire family, I too mourn her loss.

“ Marlo was easy to love. She had a gentle spirit and a kind heart. Several of the cousins were close in age and were friends. Marlo loved the Lord and I am very sure she is with Him now. It's wonderful to know she is at peace. Pixie
