

Marjorie Lou Waggoner Wilkerson

August 25, 1922 - January 19, 2015

MARJORIE LOU WAGGONER WILKERSON, born in Vienna, Virginia on August 25, 1922 to Mary Gladys Swaisgood Waggoner Barney and Russel Harley Waggoner died peacefully in her sleep at her home on January 19, 2015. In the 1930s Marjorie's mother became Vienna's first woman to own her own business, Gladys S. Waggoner Ice and Fuel Company, and was a founding member of the Vienna Businessman's Association. Marjorie met the love of her life, Hylton Ellis Wilkerson, at the Vienna Fireman's Carnival in 1939 and they married on August 3, 1940. Marjorie and Hylton are responsible for the creation of Talahi Road, for easier access to their first home they built. The second home they built for them and their four daughters, Janet, Susan, Sandy, and Mary was 222 Talahi Road. They are also survived by 14 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

For over 30 years, Marjorie and Hylton worked in their commercial painting business they began together in Vienna, Wilmar Contractors, Inc. In the 1960's they moved their residence to Fauquier County, Virginia to a Delaplane home they had originally restored as a weekend getaway. Compatible in both dreams and ambition, they further returned to their roots by once again buying and restoring an old property, "Belle Grove" (circa 1780 near Paris, Virginia) to its original glory. Sky Meadows Farm, now part of Sky Meadows State Park, was at one time part of the original Belle Grove Estate. Expressions of sympathy may take the form of flowers or contributions to the Upperville
