“ Mark was a special friend to me for 20+ years. He very rarely missed a day of coming by my desk just to say hello. He could be counted on to cheer me up with his quick wit or just lend an ear. We "picked" on each other for many years; I considered Mark my adopted brother. I will always miss him.

“ Mark was caring and selfless to others. I think he recognized that the day-to-day happenings in life shouldn't be taken seriously; i admired his easy going approach to life.
