“ A long time ago, I knew Martin in 8th grade at James Madison High School. He was a school friend, a good-natured guy, friendly; and I never forgot him despite the years and the short time we went to school together. A few years later, I ran into him when he had a job at Fairfax Circle in a drug store. He was as friendly as ever. Martin must have finished high school at another school (maybe Marshall?). I suspect he grew into a fine man and I was sorry to read of his passing.

“ *Sam
Thanks for all the rides to the bus stop on those early days more than 40 years ago. You were the most even tempered man except when Ann has gone to the dentist and the local kids were peeping in your windows. You will be missed, give my dad a big hug when you see him.
