“ I only met Red a few years ago and wish that the timing was better. He was such a funny character! He had a presence about him that drew you in to his "sassy" and interesting personality. He was smart and handsome and what I liked most about him was he called a spade... a spade. Which most people do not have the courage to do! It was like he feared nothing and was the infamous tough guy but also was one of the most caring people I ever met. A heart bigger than life! He brought laughter to my life and I chuckle still when I think about his stories. I know that he is now at peace after such a long hold to life. I was amazed at his strength but at the same time not the slightest bit surprised! I will never forget him and will always be thankful that our paths crossed. I will continue to think of him often.

To Robin, the sister everybody needs, I admire your dedication and loyalty to Red. He leaned on you in more ways than words could tell. You provided the ultimate "unconditional" love to Red and I know that he was very grateful for you. I wish that I could have done more for you during this time. "For Real"!
