

Marvin Vand Washington

March 5, 1986 - May 26, 2023

“And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.”

-Romans 8:28

Marvin Vandell Washington, 37, of Stafford, Virginia, passed away on May 26, 2023 after a battling diabetes for the majority of his adult years. He was born on March 5, 1986 in Woodbridge, Virginia, to Joann Washington and Richard Johnson.

Marvin attended Hylton High School in Woodbridge, VA and after graduating he found his footing working in restaurants. Although he was the middle child in a family of six children, Marvin was always outspoken and opinionated. Quick to make anyone laugh with his hilarious stories and impressions. Everyone who knew Marvin knows how much he deeply loved and cared for his family.

One can tell the true character of someone by how much they are missed. If the outpouring of love and condolences the family have received serve as any indication of this, then we know that Marvin was a good man with a kind heart and a loving spirit.

Marvin joins his parents, Richard and Joann, his sister, Cheri Washington and his baby brother Richard (Devon) Washington whom he loved with all his heart. Left to cherish his memory are his siblings Gerald Washington, Jameel Washington (Jackie Washington) and Natasha Walker (Ryan Walker), along with his former wife, Taylor Washington, and so many other beloved family members and friends.

A Celebration of Marvin's Life Will Take Place at A Later Date
