“ *Theresa and family,
I am saddened to hear of Marv's passing - as you know I was his employee and friend for many , many years - I have tears in my eyes thinking of him - he was rough and tough but taught me a lot - I could hate him and love him but, I had the utmost respect for him as a boss and a friend. I learned quite a bit from Marv and what I did learn eventually helped me in later years.*

Marv, introduced me to your family and I felt quite welcome in their presence. (this I believe did not happen to very many of his employees).

I wish I had a chance to say goodbye but it wasn't meant to be.

What do I say at this point, I lost my Mother last year (98yrs. old) and it still hurts but wonderful memories are still here in my mind. Hopefully, you will remember the wonderful life you all have had together.

Fondest regards to Theresa and family,

Bob Lambo
