“ I can't believe my sister Kathy has lost another one of her children. She lost Diane just a few years ago and now Mary Robin. Their lives were cut short at such young ages. My niece suffered many years with cancer but through it all she had a joy for living; especially for her mother, children and grandchildren. I had an opportunity of seeing Mary Robin's art drawings ~ they were quite good ~ one of her hidden talents. Even though Mary Robin is not with us her smile, love and laughter is. These are the beautiful memories that keep her near. Our deepest sympathies. Love, Uncle Gene and Aunt Mary Faith

“ *I'm deeply saddened by the loss of my sweet childhood friend, Mary Robin . I have very fond memories of playing at her house as we grew up together through school , I was there when she moved to her first home and had her first baby. Mary was always fun ,full of life and always smiling. She will always remain in my memories. Gone to soon but not forgotten.
