“ Mary, my Miss Daisy was a blessing to me for many years. I will treasure the special memories we made and they days we spent running our "doggie day care". Miss Daiay, your limo arrived and took you to the streets of gold. I was proud to be your chaefur and your friend. You are free and made new. And to Debbie, well done good and faithful servant.

“ Miss Mary was one of the kindest and loving women you would ever meet. Her love for God was seen at once. Children were her greatest joy. She loved Emery and her children and was always talking about her grandchildren. She was active with the youth of Union Baptist and never missed a mission trip or any chance to love on them. God has taken home a precious saint and I know she is having a time in heaven with her Lord and Emery!!!
