“ My heart goes out to Mary's Family. She loved them so. Mary was one of the first Realtors that I met when I went with Better Homes over 20 yrs ago. She taught me a lot about business and she also taught me to laugh when I needed to..I deeply regret not going to visit Mary when I should have. Another lesson in how short life is. She will be truly missed.

“ I was Mary's Broker at Better Homes Realty. She was such an asset to my office, a friend when I needed help..and always had a new joke and was the life of our parties. She was a survivor, strictly business when working in real estate(smart),and a strong willed lady. I loved her for all of her wonderful qualities and have missed her since she had retired. I know we will have you as a guardian angel...may God bless you Mary.
