

Mary Stuart Lipnick

October 21, 1935 - April 12, 2016

Mary Stuart Lipnick, born Mary Stuart Ellison, age 80, passed away on April 12, 2016 at home in Manassas, VA.

Born on October 21, 1935 in Catharpin, VA to Gertrude Sloper Ellison and Charles Grover Ellison, Mary Stuart "Sue" to many, was retired from Walmart. She was extremely creative and talented. Cooking, baking, candy making and feeding family and friends made her happy. She was an excellent seamstress, did all types of needle work, quilted, knitted, and crafts of all kinds. She was a pro-fisher woman and loved sharing her catch with neighbors. She travelled throughout the United States and Europe. Jigsaw puzzles were a favorite past time and she enjoyed watching the Food Channel network.

Predeceased by her father and mother, brothers Charles Grover Ellison Jr., Walter Gilbert Ellison, and sisters infant Bess, Margaret Swart, and Frances Rapp of Arizona.

She is survived by one daughter, Sheila Walters Strickland of Manassas, one grandchild, Lindsay Weiner of Manassas, numerous nieces, nephews, grand nieces and nephews, dear friends, and her precious cat "Baby Girl".

A graveside service will be held on Saturday April 16, 2016 at 2 p.m. at Sudley United Methodist Church located at 5308 Sudley Road, Manassas, VA with Chaplain Jeffry Krauss officiating.

A celebration of her life to follow at a later date.
