“ My name is Betty Wheeler, and Mary was my half-sister. We had the same father, just different mothers. I miss her so much. She would always comment when she saw a picture of me or my grandchildren on Facebook. I never got to spend much time with Mary because she was 20 yrs. older than me. She also lived in another state for most of my life, due to Hugh being in the service. I sure loved her a lot. She will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with Michael and Michael and his family.

“ Mary was a confidant, friend and a mother to me. Generosity should have been Mary's middle name. A place to stay, Mary's door was always open for wayward souls. I know because I have been one of those wayward souls from time to time. I know that she opened her door to many wayward souls throughout her life. Never with a deadline or judgement made. Mary never found fault with anyone or even looked for it, because her heart was a compassionate heart. Mary was a real southern cook. I member her making me barbeque pork. She would say I'll teach you and I would say why, I have you to make it for me. Wish I had learned now. Mary was a great story teller too. Her stories of growing up in Georgia played out like a movie and you would not leave because you wanted to hear the ending. And I still can hear that wonderful laugh of hers. Family was the most important thing in her life, Michael, her grandchildren, g-grandchildren, her sisters, nieces and nephews. Mary even had enough leftover love for all the rest of us. My heart is very sad and I will miss this gentle southern lady from the south. I am happy knowing that I now have an angle on my shoulder now. I love and miss you mom Mary.
