“ My fondest memories of Mary Weimer are when i first Married into the Weimer family in 1963 she was one of the first of my husband Jimmy 's Aunts i met!.i was shy but it did not take too many more visits that we talked about many things while her hubby--Stanley & my Jimmy spent many hours in his garage !!! We remained good firriends thru the years and loved our talks. I was still visiting her even after her hubby & mine had both passed away. Shared a lot of great memories. I loved her a lot & will miss her much. Betty you are a lot like your Mom & have that sweet loving heart love you
