“ Lots of good memories, especially the Seafood Newburg and all the other great treats from the kitchen, the trips to Montreal to the Blue Bonnets park, and all those bridge and pinochle games. There will be some Heavenly cooking and sewing going on now, and hopefully some relaxing by the pool as well.

“ Oh, the wonderful memories I have of Marylyn...I've known her since second grade when I moved into the same neighborhood. We had such good times all the way through high school. Every year, there was a really big affair on Labor Day with a big band concert at the gazebo...and there would be Marylyn with her baton, twirling away. We both moved from our home town but still managed to see each other occasionally after we were married and had families. There was the New Year's Eve when we visited Marylyn and Leonard in Vermont, and our car got towed. We had some really good laughs over that, and many other things. I'm really glad that she was in my life. God bless Marylyn, and her family.

“ Times when we were all together last seem so far away now. I remember a cookout at our house when Aunt Marylyn, her mother, father and sister were all in Indiana. Several of us sat on the patio and talked. The topic of the conversation escapes me though. As kids, we played 'army' that day. Dad had made some cement to fix something and Steve and I used the remainder to make a fort on a piece of concrete that had formerly been a side walk. It was chilly that day and Sam the dog lost his knitted sweater in the woods. Hope that we have a chance to see one another again some day. May God in Heaven bless us all. Sincerely, Doug Cockrell

“ I am blessed to have been a part of Marylyn's life. I was fortunate enough to get one more hug from her just days ago and I will, forever, treasure that hug. I will miss seeing you but I will never forget you. Please give my Angel Hayley a hug from her Grammy. God bless you, Marylyn. SmileOn!
