“ So many memories and strong thoughts and feelings are racing and I can't organize and communicate them. I am sure that Luke will live on through the beauty of the memories in our minds, the love in our hearts, his paintings and sculptures and his great renovation of an old church into La Chapelle Restaurant in Manassas, all the things he left behind, and through the lives he touched and the love, compassion and wisdom he shared.

He was an INCREDIBLE MAN, polite, responsible, hard working, very talented artist, best cook, skilful bartender, restaurateur, motel proprietor, family oriented, very generous, caring, always with a welcoming smile and infectious spirit, helpful and devoted to his extended family and friends and neighbors and everyone.

My heartfelt condolences, love, sympathy, and prayers to his beautiful family during this difficult time. May God bless all of you with enough strength and patience to bear his loss.

“ My thoughts are racing and unorganized, so many memories, so strong and I can't communicate them, the guy that always has something to say is struggling get the words out....I will try..... My Father was a self promoter he always told me to promote yourself, let the people know who you are get them to like you give them something that's interesting, something nice to contemplate, always leave them with nice thoughts.....When my Dad came to this country he went to school in the Midwest, Ohio and in Missouri. After he had been here for a short time, He noticed that everyone had a picture in their Dorm room of their Parents. He started knocking on doors and telling them I can paint a mural of that picture or if you have another photo I can do that for you too. Well pretty soon after he had so many requests for paintings he didn't have time to do his school work. Here is a selfie before there was such a thing before he came to this country. The beginning.....

“ God Bless Darius, family and extended family in this time of need of prayer. I never knew your Dad, but what we heard and saw was such a loyal loving person God gave to the Barzegar family leaving a great heritage to carry on. The devotion to family, friends and neighbors is a true testament of what he instilled in Darius. Praying for you all. Valmore & Judymae Allen Cognetta

Luke was such a ray of sunshine in our lives. I spent many happy hours at La Chapelle with my late husband, and I had the pleasure of introducing my present husband of 16 years to Luke and Nancy when we drove across Florida to spend two days with them a few years ago. We were speechless at the beauty of his paintings and sculptures. I had only seen Luke as a wonderful restaurateur, motel proprietor, bartender at his great renovation of an old church in Manassas, VA into La Chapelle. He always made the best steak sandwich in the world! I was also privileged to have tea with his mother many years ago when we lived in Manassas also. He will be sorely missed, not only by his family, but the rest of us have lost a great man. Herb and I send our heartfelt condolences and prayers to all.

Luke & Nancy made us very welcome when we stayed at Baywinds all those years ago. We have visited many times since and we were always greeted warmly. Luke was a talented man and was very proud of Nancy and his family. Please accept our Condolences at this sad time. John & Jennie Duckworth.

President John F. Kennedy once said: 'Great men show politeness in a particular way; a smile suffices to assure you that you are welcome, and keep about their avocations as if you were a member of the family'. Luke was such a natural leader, spokesman, well - I could go on forever. All who were blessed to have (just) spoke with him never forgot him. I too was a VERY lucky man to have known and love him. My prayers are with his family Nancy, Darius, and daughters.

We spent many an evening at Cafe 104, La Chapelle and The Gallery. We celebrated many occasions there. My parents had their 45th wedding anniversary at LaChapelle. Those were good times and Luke was always a gracious host. What a sweet wonderful man.
