

Matthew Steven Linville

April 6, 1993 - June 19, 2022

Matthew Steven Linville, 29, passed away on June 19, 2022. His kindness, intelligence, humor, and capacity for love will be remembered and exemplified by those who knew and loved him. Born on April 6, 1993, to Keri and Steve in Manassas, Virginia, he brought people together since the day he was born and continued to bring happiness and laughter to everyone who knew him.

Matthew earned a Bachelors in English and History in 2015, as well as a Masters in Professional Writing and Rhetoric in 2022. Once he started talking about history, like the Battle of Bull Run, amongst many other topics, he could keep going for hours. Writing was one of his many talents, a passion he wished to share with everyone.

In his honor, drink a nice cup of coffee, sit down with a good book, listen to your favorite music, and be present in every moment.

Matthew is survived by his wife, Kristine; his father, Steve; his mother, Keri; his siblings, Stevie and Casey, his two cats, Biscuit and Butter, as well as countless family and friends.

Matt would've liked you all to be comfortable when coming to his memorial service. Casual dress is requested.

“ Hi Carrie. This is Alice. No, I haven't forgot you! It's just me and Tech not getting along or this old lady understanding that language. Hearing about Mike was sure a shocker. But you are in my prayers and will have a cup of coffee thinking of him. Take care of yourself and be thankful for that dear mother of yours. Love you!

“ I have not spoken with Matt in years, but the news of his death impacted me as though we had just seen one another yesterday. He and I were in the same undergraduate History seminar, and we walked to the parking lot together after every class. The content of our conversations escapes me, but the presence, care and interest that he showed is an indelible mark on my life. My deepest condolences to all of Matt's loved ones.

“ Matt was a sweet and kind historic interpreter at the Manassas Museum. Even when working under difficult conditions, he kept up a cheerful attitude and was always willing to do the hard work. Our hearts go out to his family and friends as we remember him and keep you in our prayers.

“ Our deepest condolences to Kristine and all of Matt's family. Matt was one of the sweetest, kindest people we knew. He took the most excellent care of my elderly father and we all liked him a lot. My husband and Matt used to love discussing history. Matt will be deeply missed by all of his family and friends.
