“ *Dear Maureen,
I worked with you for a very short time yet got to know how of an amazing person you were and your work with the JDC kids! You were so energetic, happy and optimistic One of the things I want to share with your family just to show how good spirited you were. In 2009 I was freezing in JDC and you were walking in a short sleeve T-shirt... I asked you" Aren't you called?" You smiled at me being in my 20s and said" Honey, there is something to look forward to once you pass the menopause:)" I will miss you*

“ They say it is all about the dash inbetween those years.

Reenie was allowed a short number of years, yet, she accomplished so much, and touched so many with her loving, caring soul.

Our beloved Aunt Reenie will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.

*Deepest Sympathy,
Rick, Phyllis & Family*
