

Melba Ellen Yang

January 27, 1942 - November 15, 2021

When Melba Ellen Woods was born on January 27, 1942, in Salt Lake City, Utah, her father, Robert, was 21, and her mother, Hazel, was 23. She married Henry Yang on December 10, 1965. They had three children during their marriage: Robert, Arthur, and Helen. She died on November 15, 2021, in Manassas, Virginia at the age of 79. She is survived by her three children and her grandchildren: Max and Hana Terpstra - of Beaverton, Oregon and Mia and Brandon Yang - of San Francisco. She was an avid gardener, had a strong Christian faith, had an innate creative talent, and was a lover of nature. Having been raised on a farm - she adored everything about country living. She marched in support of the Equal Rights Amendment and was passionate about women's rights in the 1970s. The body will be cremated, with a service and ashes scattered at a later date. She will be missed. Rest in Peace.

Tribute Wall

AY

“ Art Yang lit a candle in memory of Melba Ellen Yang

Art Yang - November 20, 2021 at 04:28 PM

TM

“ Terri Martin lit a candle in memory of Melba Ellen Yang

Terri Martin - November 19, 2021 at 09:05 AM