“ To the Family, Plese accept my condolences. I have known Melvin since we were in grammar school. We were in our Senior Clss play together and I have always known Melvin to be a person of laughter and good spirits. I will miss him deeply.

“ I loved the memory of your dad having a water fight with us at my parents house on Dallas Lake, your dad did not mess around, he got out the bucket and dipped it into the lake, we all ran around like crazy and just laughed and laughed. Your parents ment so much to mine and we loved being with your family, your dad will be missed.
