“ Sue and Mel jr, you are both in my prayers at this difficult time. I also feel your loss of a man that had so much love and laughter to share with everyone he met. Take comfort in the thought that you were the special ones he chose to spend his life with and remember he will live forever in all hearts that he touched.

“ Susan,
I send you concern and sympathy in the loss of your husband. I am so sorry for your unexpected loss.
May your memories of good times and love shared comfort you.
May you feel the support and encouragement of those who know and love you. May you sense God's real presence in all your time of hurt and pain.
I wish for you peace and comfort in this most difficult time.
