“ This is very late because I just found out about Meredith's passing. She was always a bright spot in my life when I'd go to that wonderful little library. We discovered that we both have McLeod/MacLeod ancestors and each time I'd go to the library, when she saw me she'd say, "Hi, Cuz"! She was desperately trying to learn more about her MacLeod kin. I'm hoping that she did before she passed. I know she would have been "over the moon" if she was able to do that. So sorry to learn of her passing. What a sweet, dear soul.

“ My Mother was my life. She was my Best Friend. She gave my life on Dec 18th 1976. My Mother loved everyone. She was so giving to anyone in need or just because... She is now gone in flesh yet her Spirit is Free. Now, She no longer has to endure any pain. She is at Peace. She was ready to let go and let God. She had never been the sane since Marion passed away. She is now reunited with her Daughter once again. Marion, Uncle John, Grandma Thybony, Gammy and Grandpa Bill.. I Love and miss you all. I pray for peace in our family as my Mother so dearly urned it to be. Please, God Bless us all. Mom, I Love You! I hope you are singing because your happy. I hope your singing because your free. His eye is on The Sparrow and I know He watches me. Sing your Song of peace in a sweet "Meredith" melody. I Love You! I Love You! I Love You! ~Amy Lynn Murphree

“ Mer I can believe there are only 2 Musketeers now. Life knowing you was always without a doubt a good time. Even in the bad times you found it in your soul to laugh, which I always Loved so much. Every Time we spoke I got you to laugh or we would laugh about something we had done back in the days of us running the roads. How we did it sometimes I'll never know. You would rest up for it all day Sat. and by sat. nite you were ready to rock & roll! You will truly & sincerely missed. Until we met again, I'll Pray for the family and will always Love You to The Moon & Back. . .
