“ Unfortunately, those workers of VIP and Meridian who harassed me left right and center in the summer of 2013 are still around but Merv Calhoun of Meridian, passed away. But perhaps this was the butterfly effect or karma misdirected.

“ Merv Jr, as we called him, had a gentle spirit unless you messed with his daughter or the other ones he loved. Many will not know this, but his beloved grandmother, Meemaw raised him for many years with so much gentle love. When he needed TLC, he would drop by Meemaws and she would naturally love on him as only she could do plus make his favorite food to eat and keep asking him if he wanted more. Here, take this home with you, she would always say.. She was a saint in his life. Although tragic was his passing away at such a young age, its kinda unique that the day he passed on was Meemaw's birthday. Rest in peace young man; you will be miss greatly. Love you for eternity,
Aunt Linda

“ I've only known you for over a year but feel like I've known you for a very long time. You always had a smile at work which was infectious. And I remember when you brought your daughter into work, you were just beaming with pride. I feel honored that I met you and your daughter. You are missed. You will always be remembered.

“ Merv was a wonderful uncle to his nieces and his love for Maddie was undeniable. This world is emptier without him in it. You will be greatly missed but never forgotten Uncle Merv!

“ Merv loved music so much.. It was his first love before Maddie. I remember when we had just started dating circa 2001 or so...He was excited to get a local gig at Brews in Sterling, VA. I bought him roses and had a card waiting at the dj booth. "Life inspires your music, and your music inspires your life" How simple but how true that note describes Merv through all the years..... Rest in peace Merv. Your music touched a lot of people. But your love for Maddie, made you a really great man...

Merv was such a character. He always had you smiling and laughing. He had some great days and like all of us he had some not so great days! In spite of all that he was a great guy with a heart of gold for his daughter. You will always remain in her heart and her memory. You will be missed!

I love you forever, Bestie.
