I met Mike through my future husband David Ellis. He was a nice man, polite and we talked about job opportunities at the post office where he worked many years.

Mike was my roommate in Fairfax, not far from his work at the Merrifield Post Office, in the late 1980's, early 90's. He was a good roommate, very mechanically inclined, a quiet man and we sometimes shared dinner from Taco Bell or a pizza. Rest in heavenly peace my friend Michael Lee.
