“ Dear Angie, Dylan and Mollie:

Words do an injustice in explaining how much we will miss Mike. I feel honored to have known such a great person - genuine, kind, caring and oh so funny. If Mike couldn't put a smile on your face, no one could. I will always remember him as someone who lit up every room he ever walked into.

Keeping you close to my heart,

“ My deepest condolences to Mollie, Angela and Dylan....

Mollie, Mark, Kyle and I have the most wonderful memories if the time we spent with "Iggy"....Kyle loved him like a big brother and Mark and I loved him like a son. You, Michael and your mom were the best neighbors we ever had.

Michael and I just recently reconnected on Facebook and it was such a joy to see the little boy who lived next door, who had grown into such a handsome man, so happy in his new role as husband and stepfather.....he said that "life was really good".

We will be praying for your family in the coming days....I am comforted by the following verse as I imagine Michael's next home..."You will go out in joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and hills will burst into song before you, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands." - Isaiah 55:12

God bless you...

“ My condolences to Michael's mother, wife Angie and stepson Dylan. The character of a man is shown by the way he treats the people around him. Mike treated everyone with respect, and always brought joy to everyone he came in contact with. Knowing Mike was truly a blessing. He will be missed.

“ My deepest and most sincerest condolences go out to the Pollard family during this time of mourning. If there is anything the Branche family can do to help through these times please be sure to ask, we're only a few short feet away!

?Don?t be dismayed at goodbyes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends.? Richard Bach, (Illusions)

“ To the Family: I wanted to send my deepest and sincere condolences during this unfortunate time in your lives, but I also wanted to share with your family a comforting promise that God gives in his Word the Bible about the hope of us seeing our dead loved ones again, it's found at John 5:28,29 which in part reads:"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life,". Your family will be in my prayers, my sincere condolences.
