“ Dad I have been wanting to write on here for a while now, but I didn't know what to write. I still am not sure what to write. I know that I miss you a lot. I still don't have any answer as to why this happened or do I understand. I do know that you are not hurting anymore or struggle with any issues. I believe that is what is helping keep me and Kayla together. We love you . We are trying to do everything that we think that you would want. I hope that we are making you proud. Please keep watching over us please we need it right now. We love you dad. rest easy.

“ I had to say good bye to you on Friday evening at the funeral service..I still cannot believe you are gone...I go to pick up the phone and remember you can't answer...I know you are in heaven with the Father Son and Holy Spirit but being selfish I want you here....I know you are not in pain and are making everyone laugh with your sense of humor....I miss you so much and I don't know if I will ever get over you being gone....I LOVE YOU...MISS YOU so much

“Brother its hard to believe you're gone. I know you're in a better place where you're happy and free from your struggles. I'm so glad that Dad through his death just 15 months ago brought you, me and Chris together again. I cherish that time because it was like old times, the 3 of us sticking together to take care of each other. I know Dad was right there to take your hand and now you and Dad are watching over us. My heart is breaking wondering why I didn't reach out to you more. I know you wouldn't want me to dwell on what could've been but being your big Sis its hard not to think about it. You know I've always been the one to think too much. I'm so thankful I got to see you dancing and happy at Danielle's wedding. I keep replaying the conversation you me and Chris had at the wedding about how I didn't get the height gene but I got the "money makers". I can still hear you laughing! Despite your struggles your laughter and sense of humor was always contagious. I love you brother forever and always. Until we meet again!

“ Ellen my heart and prayers are with you. There are no words to say that will take away your broken heart. Only Jesus can bring you comfort. No mother should ever have to suffer the loss of one of her children. Your pain is a pain that only a mother could understand. You have been my friend most of our lives. So I feel I've lost something too as I watch you walk through one of toughest times in your life. I remember Mike when he was small on the church bus. Lots of energy!! He's been your right arm for a long time. Now he's gone. It's going to take some time, but you will heal. You will always miss him, but it will get easier. I love you, and I'm always here for you. Sending prayers and hugs..
