“ Mike recruited me to the Student YMCA at Pittsburg State U., Pittsburg, KS in the 1962-63 school year. This led to my 21-year YMCA career including 2 years in Bogotá, Colombia where I met my wife Cecilia. We just celebrated our 50th anniversary. So Mike was a great friend and had a huge impact on my life. I just today learned of Mike’s passing.

“ Michael, you have blessed my life in the last few years and I will forever hold many memories in my heart. I will always catch myself when singing at the dinner table, roll my eyes with you over someone else's ..ahem..wit, and will keep those beautiful crystal lamps lit that you replaced for me after the Christmas tree disaster. True friends do extraordinary things such as driving two hours just to help me lock the door for the final time after 16 years of The Mole Hole in Charlottesville. I will always love you.

“ Dale and I spent the last few weeks together with Micheal. To see how much fight you gave is inspiring. You helped me grow as a person and taught me what it takes to grow as a person. We love you Micheal, you are always in our hearts.

“ Dale,
I am so sorry about your loss. As you know I just recently met Michael at my Dad's viewing. I didn't get an opportunity to talk to him a lot but I could tell he was kind. I liked him. I am so sorry for your pain and I wish I could make it better for you. Take time and look around because you will see signs that he is near. They may be small but God will let you know he is with you.

Love,
Wanda

“ Michael, dear angel among angels, the first time I met you, your welcoming warmth and wit embraced me with kindness, and love. Love for Dale, his passion for the scholarship program you and he shared, your interests in life's events and all things worthy of love and friendship to all you greeted and took into your fold. You touched so many hearts with all of the wonderful traits of character, integrity and humility. I admired you for these and so many other things you accomplished in life and those who you affected with your intelligence, charm, and charisma. You will be missed and fondly remembered. May the Peace of the Lord fill the hearts of your loved ones with comfort and blessings. Rest in Peace my friend. Love, Leigh Berry

“ *Michael, It was not long enough, but my life is enriched for having known you. We have great memories of apple butter, and awful martinis. I will forever remember your wisdom, your sharp wit, and that warm, infectious smile. But most of all, I will forever remember you shining example of love that you share with Dale. Life lessons.
