

MICHAEL Paul Tornatore

March 14, 1957 - April 7, 2024

Michael Paul Tornatore, March 14, 1957- April 7, 2024

Michael P. Tornatore, age 67, died peacefully at the hospital after complications with respiratory issues.

He is preceded in death by his father, Paul Tornatore, mother Joyce Tornatore, and sister Linda Mitchell.

He is survived by his daughters, Jenifer Tornatore of Odenton, MD and Kelly Tornatore of Sharptown, MD; and his son Michael Kocis of Woodbridge, VA. Also survived by his siblings, Mary Kay LedDuke, Anne Lese (husband Brian), Elyn (Beth) Lawhorn of Manassas, VA.

He was a graduate of Stonewall Jackson High School class of 1975. He was a past employee at Giant Food and a bus driver for Culcupper County Schools for many years.

His passions were music, singing, and had a love for karaoke. He spent a lot of his free time singing in bands throughout the years most notably Destiny, The RoadRunners and the T-Birds. Many people in the DJ and Karaoke community knew him as "Mighty Mike" and his karaoke personality was larger than life. He was dearly loved and he touched the lives of everyone he met.

A celebration of life will be arranged in the future.

“Mighty Mike you'll be super missed, from America's to Mackeys in Old Town Manassas for karaoke 🎤 Therapy, we had the greatest times! From you saying he let me show you hiw to work the equipment ao you could go smoke lol only to you to show back a little later lol 😊 he loved to play Pokémon go. To the nights I literally got to sing an entire concert. May you RIP. And thank you for always being so kind to me and letting me have a world of fun doing what I love. RIP Mighty Mike! Sending condolences 🙏 to family and friends.
