“ Happy 56th birthday to you in Heaven today. If you were still here. We'd be headed out to cause some trouble and celebrate right now. Wherever we end up would never forget who we are and why we were there. ❤️ LOL! Remember the silver ring you paid for cuz I didn't have the extra $$ at Bike Week in OC, MD? I wore it so much that it cracked in half eventually. I was heartbroken. I put the pieces in a clear glass heart shaped locket that I wear frequently. And I'm reminded of you (and the blast we had that weekend) whenever I look at the two halves. And I miss you every time I look at it. I wish you could come back now. You've already been gone long enough. And it's past your curfew now. And I just wish you'd come back. Love and miss you so much, Michele. Hope you're having an amazing birthday up there. I'll see you again someday when it's my time to go home to Heaven too. ❤️❤️

“ Michele will be missed by so many family and friends. She had a spirit that compared to no other. We are so happy she found her peace with the lord and is in a place where she is happy and free of the pain she has endured with her neck and back problems. We love you Michele!
